

One Community with One Goal

Getting involved in your community can be quite gratifying and one of the best investments of your time. The Parsippany Area Chamber of Commerce and PACC Visitors Center is a non-profit volunteer organization of business people, merchants, residents, and volunteer organizations that have been serving the community for nearly 15 years. Our Chamber acts as an information and networking resource as well as a link to our local government. It supports educational seminars while providing our members with the opportunity to become involved in many community interests. These members are respected business leaders within the community, with value-added support, expertise, and dedication. As a united force of the community, it plans the development and improvement of the business community that supports its residents and volunteer organizations.

Membership is open to any firm or individual who lives, works, or does business in the Parsippany-Troy Hills area and its surrounding communities.
